This one-day course will provide police personnel at all levels and rank with a solid presentation on Search and Seizure law, with a strong emphasis on the Fourth Amendment and United States Supreme Court holdings, marking most of the course applicable to the entire United States. This course is beneficial to law enforcement personnel from any state. There is also important coverage of Michigan Court cases in this area, that further enhance the presentation for those Michigan police personnel in attendance. With search and seizure law becoming more complex, personnel with only a few years on the job or decades of experience will both benefit from this course.
