Corrections Academy

Washtenaw Community College presents the Michigan Sheriffs' Coordinating and Training Council (MSCTC) approved 160-hour Local Corrections Officer Academy. This academy is designed for correctional personnel supervising inmates in Michigan county jails and is open to all in-service Corrections Officers as well as all pre-service personnel looking for a career as a professional corrections officer in Michigan.

The Academy curriculum consists of 14 modules and is conducted by instructors who have extensive experience in a correctional environment and are certified by the MSCTC.

Course modules

- Booking and intake
- Custody and security
- Fire safety
- Prisoner behavior
- Stress management
- Correctional law
- Defensive tactics
- First Aid/CPR/AED
- Report writing
- Suicide awareness
- Cultural diversity
- Ethics
- Interpersonal communication
- Workplace harassment

Satisfactory completion of the academy is a requirement to become certified as a local corrections officer in Michigan. All course materials will be provided for each student. Class attendance is mandatory for all academy modules. If any portion of a class is missed, it is the responsibility of the student to arrange for completion of the missed class.
